

NAVAL AND MARINE
CONSULTANCY SERVICE
TEAM INTEGRATION

- + Our work and experience over the years on marine and submarine projects of different types, as well as our involvement in technical development, now allows us to offer our services as Marine Advisors or Consultants to help you check the viability of your project.

Passing through every stage, from the initial study to the start of the project, excluding, at the moment, its construction.

- Our own distinctive inter-company collaboration and our highly skilled personnel allow us to offer solutions for practically all marine or submarine operations you may put to us.
- Our work is therefore aimed at being able to advise and/or help you in tasks of the following type:
 - Preparation, organisation, planning, regulation and standardisation of projects.
 - Production and maintenance of projects.
 - Quality Control and Technical Inspection.
 - The possible commercial, financial and personnel management.
 - Team integration.

- The various departments which make up our company allow us to test, calculate, manage and in many cases even carry out all aspects of any project.
 - From Naval Construction
 - Maritime and port engineering
 - Oceanic engineering.
 - Applied Oceanography.
 - Environmental Physics.
 - Industrial Technology.
 - Public Relations.

✚ Our motto is To leave the client satisfied with a job Well Done.

➤ Our services are aimed at being able to serve all types of Companies, Public Administrations, Individuals or Training Centres.

✚ Our interest is your interest. The sea is our resource.
